

AFFIDAVIT OF SUPPORT FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

This form must accompany an international student application for admission. Privately supported students receive financial support from their own resources, their parent, or their legal guardian. Attached evidence of available finances must be in the form of notarized or certified original official bank statement with dates, or employers' guarantees or statements. No uncertified photocopies can be accepted.

Please print legibly and sign this form when completed. No application will be complete without submission of this form. Immigration documents will be issued only if student has been accepted and only after all financial resource certifications have been received.
